

Hotels

There are three options we can recommend. The best one is Auberge du Bonheur, because it is adjacent to the university and a good-quality hotel. Unfortunately, by the time of writing it was already full booked around the DvdS 2016. However, it is not uncommon that reservations are cancelled, so calling them for a reservation could be fruitful (there is also a waiting list).

Mercure is decent hotel in the city center. From this hotel it takes around 25 minutes to get to the conference venue by bus or train. Since this hotel is in the city center it is probably a bit noisier than the other two options. The hotel has an excellent (and expensive) restaurant in its basement.

Hotel de Leijhof is located in Oisterwijk, a quiet village to the east of Tilburg, with many excellent restaurants. By train, it takes only 12 minutes to get to Tilburg University train station (and another 10 minutes to walk to the conference venue). The hotel offers free parking.
